Tasting Beer

When tasting a beer, it can be helpful to carefully evaluate the beer in sections. Look at the beer's color and clarity. What is the carbonation like? Does it have a good head of foam? Smell the beer and try to break down the aroma.

When first tasting the beer, try to resist swallowing the beer immediately. Really get a "mouthfeel" and evaluate the different flavors. Try to pick up the more subtle flavors in the beer as you roll it around in your mouth. Then, what is the aftertaste like? It can often be bitter from the hops or have a malty sweetness to it.

You can do beer samplings at home or at a brewery. It's always fun with a couple of friends to compare and discuss with each other. In between beers, it's nice to have pretzels, cheese, peanuts etc. for a palate cleanser.

How to Pair Beer and Food

Beers are normally paired with foods of similar flavor and heaviness. It's important not to have your beer overpower your food or vice versa.

Take a sip of your favorite beer. Slowly savor it as you envision what foods would compliment it best. Most importantly, have fun with it and don't be afraid to experiment.

GL-13

GL-11

GL-18

GL-14

Golf seems like it should be the easiest sport on earth. You begin your round on a neatly manicured "tee box" with directions to hit your ball into the "fairway" which has the appearance of a smooth green carpet. This fairway is usually lined with trees and tall grass and there is an occasional pond or stream that makes the fairway even more beautiful. All you have to do is hit your ball onto this gorgeous stretch of grass that appears to have been cut just prior to your arrival. At the end of the fairway, there is a small patch of perfect grass with a flag blowing gently in the breeze. Your goal is to hit your ball as close to this flag as possible and then remove the flag from the "cup" and put your ball into this now empty cup. Once this is done, you go to the next tee box and do it all over again. To complete your "round," you get to do this 18 times and then you go to the "19th hole" for refreshments.

Well, it may look this easy but golf is one of the hardest and most frustrating sports on the planet. It is, in fact, so hard that it keeps players coming back over and over again because they are convinced that they can actually conquer this game. For a special few, this may happen. For the other 95%, they will play time and time again yet they will never be able to say "I shot par today." The upside to all of this is that playing golf is a wonderful way to spend four or five hours with friends, no matter what you "score."

This little golf log is meant to help those 95% learn the meaning of the word "par." We want you to experience a "birdie" now and then. We want you to finally win a dollar from your golfing buddy. It will take a lot of practice and many rounds of golf to improve your game and we hope this log will help you say par more often and enjoy the game the way you should. It really is a treat to spend the afternoon on a beautiful course with friends, so don't take it for granted.....try to enjoy every minute!

It also doesn't take much time to fill in the blanks of this log. At the end of the day, it just might help your game or at least show you where your game needs help. At the very least, it will be a record of where you played, how you played and with whom you played. Pay attention and it just may help you play better the next time out.

There is a small glossary of golf terms in the back of the book that may help you understand what your golfing pals and buddies are talking about. Hit 'em straight and enjoy the game!

Acceptable Artwork -versus- Unacceptable Artwork

Acceptable Artwork:

Vector based or high-res bitmap artwork

Unacceptable Artwork:

Web based artwork
Low resolution raster art

PLEASE FOLLOW THE SPECIFICATIONS LISTED HERE TO EXPEDITE YOUR ORDER. FAILURE TO MEET THESE GUIDELINES MAY DELAY YOUR ORDER AND INCUR ADDITIONAL ART CHARGES. IF YOU NEED MORE INFORMATION ABOUT THESE REQUIREMENTS, PLEASE CONTACT CUSTOMER SERVICE.

- 1. Artwork: All artwork must be clean, sharp, black and white line art. Screens in artwork cannot be used for die making. This includes any shade of black other than 100%.
- 2. Digital Media: We accept CD-ROMs, DVDs, and USB drives. Please include a paper proof for comparison. We do have an FTP site available for uploading artwork; please inquire for more information.
- 3. E-Mail: Artwork may be sent electronically to artwork@paynepub.com. We recommend putting all artwork into one folder and compressing it before emailing. Distributor name and order reference number must accompany all electronic artwork.
- 4. Platforms: Macintosh is preferred. We can accept certain PC/Windows files — however, these may delay your order and require additional art charges.
- 5. Acceptable Formats: The following file formats and layout programs are acceptable:
 - Adobe Illustrator (.eps or .ai) – convert all text to outlines. All embedded or placed graphics must also be sent separately.
 - Adobe Photoshop (.eps or .tif) – artwork should be black and white bitmap format with a minimum resolution of 600 ppi at 100% reproduction size
 - QuarkXpress (v 8.0 or lower for the Macintosh) – include all fonts and linked images. We cannot accept PC fonts.
 - Adobe Acrobat (.pdf) – fonts must be embedded. Embedded artwork must be high resolution. Vector-based .eps images are preferred. Artwork supplied for a one color stamp should be solid black and white line art.
 - Corel Draw – file must be exported as an Adobe Illustrator (.ai) file with all text converted to curves. All embedded or placed graphics must be included as separate attachments.
 - Adobe InDesign (Macintosh based only) – include all fonts and linked images. We cannot accept PC fonts.
- 6. Unacceptable Formats: The following are file formats and layout programs that WE DO NOT ACCEPT:
 - GIF, JPG, BMP, WMF or PICT
 - Microsoft Word, Publisher, Powerpoint or Excel
 - Adobe PageMaker
- 7. Press ready Artwork: Press ready art must be clean, sharp, black and white line art. We cannot accept faxes, inkjet prints, or photocopies as press-ready artwork.
- 8. Web Page Artwork: We will not accept any artwork that has been downloaded off the internet. Web images are usually very low resolution and are not acceptable quality for printing.
- 9. Typestyle: Unless specified on purchase order, we will typeset using our own discretion for font selection and size.
- 10. Art Charges: The normal rate for our art department is $55 per hour with a ½ hour minimum charge. We will set up to four lines of type without charge. There is no charge for acceptable artwork sent electronically or for scanning of press ready artwork. Any additional time needed to clean up artwork will be billed accordingly. Any changes made by the customer after the initial proof will be charged. There will be an additional charge for any artwork that is more than one color and needs to have trapping applied.
