Why Awards?

Employee recognition plays a key role in attracting and retaining employees amidst today's fierce competition. When an effective employee recognition program is in place, it sends employees a clear message that what they are doing matters. Rewarding and recognizing employees leads to increased motivation, enhanced engagement, and improved productivity, which in turn boosts employee retention and creates a positive workplace.

Awards and plaques are not just for bragging rights; they mean so much more and are cherished for a lifetime. Recognize with awards from St Regis.

Contact us today and have our exceptional artists help you design your next big awards program.

ARBRE COLLECTION

Bring a sustainable craftsmanship touch to your awards program. The Arbre Collection is handmade with reclaimed Canadian wood, air-dried in Canada with a natural finish. You can play with the top acrylic section with a custom color tint, frost the surface or add an ice look finish or a facet for a unique effect.
