Awards Preview // 2026

Why Awards?

Recognition isn't a "nice-to-have," it's how great cultures are built. When people feel seen for the work they do and the values they live, they show up with more pride, loyalty, and momentum. The right award turns a milestone into a moment: something tangible that says, "you matter here." We can make that easy. With a curated selection of over 10,000 awards, we help you celebrate everything from everyday wins to career-defining achievements. Each piece is designed to reflect the significance of the accomplishment and to last long after the applause fades. Celebrate performance, reinforce values, and inspire what's next, with the world's #1 award supplier.

Employee Retention Depends on Getting Recognition Right

45% Lower Voluntary Turnover Rate

Employees who received high-quality recognition were 45% less likely to leave over a two-year period.

6x stronger retention intent

Employees who receive meaningful recognition are 6x more likely to envision a long-term career with their company compared to those who are not recognized.

9x higher sense of belonging

Recognition makes employees 9x more likely to feel a strong sense of belonging at work, a key predictor of engagement and retention.

Recognition during change really moves the needle

Employees who are meaningfully recognized are 11x more likely to feel informed and supported during organizational change.
