Labels in the Legal Profession: Practical Applications

- Use color-coded labels for easy categorization of active, closed, or pending cases.
- Use tamper-evident labels to seal envelopes or secure files for added protection.
- Clearly mark "Exhibit A," "Exhibit B," etc., for evidence presentation in court.
- Label outgoing mail with "Important Legal Document Enclosed" for client communication.
- Use return address labels with firm branding to maintain professionalism.
- Create custom water bottle labels or promotional stickers with the firm's logo for client meetings or community events.
- Label archived boxes and binders with detailed information to retrieve files efficiently.
- Include destruction dates on records to comply with retention policies.
